NO. 23.

Order to Change Voting Precinct.

Estill County Court, June term, 1896.

This day came H.C. Lilly and Robt. Riddell and filed a petition of the citizens and voters of voting precinct in Estill county, known as the Irvine precinct, asking a change of the place of voting in said precinct to the Court House in Irvine, Ky., and, the Court having considered said petition, and it appearing to the Court from the said petition and from other proof offered that said change is right and proper and of great convenience to the voters of said precinct—It is therefore ordered that the place of voting in said precinct be and the same is hereby changed, and the voting place is abolished and discontinued, and that hereafter the place of voting shall be, and is hereafter established and located in the Court House in Irvine, Ky., and, hereafter, the votes of said district will be cast at said Court House; and that notices of this order be published in the Spout Spring Times the time required by law.

A copy.

Attest:—

Vernon L. Vaughn,
Clerk Estill County Court.

Mr. Locknane belongs to the family of that name here and went from here to the Pacific Coast about eighteen years ago. W. R. Locknane, of this county, and Mrs. J. B. White, of Irvine, are his only children.—Winchester Democrat.

COURT DAY.

About sixty cattle on the market yesterday of various grades, but slow sales. A lot of fair to good oxen, 1100 to 1250 lbs., brought $2.50 to 3.15. Some 550 lb. heifers sold for $2.15. The top of the market was $3.30 which was brought by a few nice 1250-lb steers. Bulls light to medium brought 2 cts.; cows, $15 to $30.—Winchester Democrat.

From the Winchester Democrat we take the following: "An Indiana exchange says that the following is one way to get rid of the numerous peddlers that infest the country selling goods in opposition to home merchants:"

"If a traveling peddler comes along and tries to sell goods, before purchasing ask him if he will take your butter, eggs, hides, and other farm produce. Ask him if when your neighborhood gets ready to build a road or a bridge over a creek or a slough, will he be willing to donate a few dollars to help it along. Tell him there is a widow down the road who would be very thankful if he would donate a few provisions. Finally, say to him that money will be scarce next season, and would he mind trusting you for a few dollars worth of goods. If he will agree to this, then patronize him."

For stoves, hardware and queensware, go to W. R. Cassidy's.

Advertise in the Times and see how your trade will grow. Try it.

Thos. Y. Fitzpatrick, of Prestonsburg, was nominated for Congress at the Democratic convention held at Beatyville last Saturday. The final vote stood, Beckner 34½, Fitzpatrick 40½.

Alonzo Walling has been convicted of complicity of murder of Pearl Bryan and sentenced to be hung.

Cardinal Gibbons evidently thinks he can control the votes of all the Roman Catholics of this country. In his recent letter deprecating the anti-papal agitation he proposes that the whole Catholic vote shall go to the party that does as he desires. How can he make such a proposition if he does not believe he can deliver the goods? The great point made by the A.P.A.'s against the Roman Catholics is that their votes are under the control of the hierarchy. We have been slow to believe that this was universally true. We have clung to the belief that there are many Catholics who refuse to get their politics from Rome. But here comes the foremost man of that church in this country and proposes to cast the Catholic's vote solidly for whichever party shall be most favorable to the interests he has at heart. This looks unfavorable to the view we have sought to hold. We hope some American Catholics who does not get his politics from Rome will speak out.
